& Company.

LUMBER CO. IS FORMED.

Takes in Three Prosperous and Growing Firms.

ALL KINDS CONTRACTS.

Carpentering, Tinwork and House Finishing Are Specialties.

Three business concerns have been merged into one big corporation to be known as the Hopkinsville Lumber Co. The concerns forming the merger are Wallace & DeTreville's stove factory and lumber yard, Canton street; Thompson & Hester, contractors and builders, and Adwell & McShane, plumbers and tinners. The two last named firms have had offices together at 312 South Main street.

The new company's place of business will be at the Canton street office and new buildings will shortly be put up and the business enlarged in every way. All of the members of the three firms taken in will be actively connected with the new company.

R. H. DeTreville, who recently bought the interest of W. A. Adcock, will be President; J. Arthur Wallace will be general manager; Ed. H. Hester and John D. Thompson will look after construction and L. E. Adwell and Hugh McShane will have charge of the tin work and plumbing departments. Walter Cox is foreman of the mill and H. C. Richatus, Jr., foreman of the lumber yards.

The company owns 11 acres of land between the Canton pike and the I. C. railroad and will have ample room for expansion to meet the demands of a rapidly growing business. All of the firms composing the company have been prosperous and have built up a business too large to be longer operated on a small scale. The parties in charge have all had wide experience and the success of the big plant is assured from the start.

For the present the company will retain its down town office on Main street.

HOLCOMBE IS COMING

Begins Revival at the Methodist Church January 27th.

GREAT GOOD EXPECTED.

Dr. A. P. Lyon Has Concluded All Arrangements for The Meeting.

It has been about one year since the Rev. Pat Davis conducted his notable revival here, the last evangelistic service held at the Methodist church.

Dr. A. P. Lyon authorizes the announcement that he has at last secured the services of Rev. Walt Holcomb, to conduct a series of meetings, beginning two weeks from next Sunday, January 27th.

We are not informed as to how long the services will continue, but we presume Mr. Holcomb will be governed pretty much by results.

Mr. Holcomb is one of the most notable young evangelists of the day and by his preaching has brought thousands into Christ's Kingdom. He is a most logical and powerful speaker and knows how to address all classes of people. He has been on the lecture platform and delivered a lecture at the Opera House a few years ago. He is a young man, only about thirty, but has the power of utterance belonging to men of more mature years. It is expected that the results of his preaching here will be great.

A $1,000 JACK.

Christian County Breeder Gets $1,200 for Fine Animal.

Capt. J. W. Riley's fine jack sold two years ago for $1,000 and Capt. Riley reserved a $200 interest in him. He was sold again this week as a six-year-old for $1,000 to Dr. John E. Gray, of Bowling Green. This animal was bred by Capt. Riley at his farm in this county and he has others just as good. If you want the very best of anything, come to Christian county for it.

TO WED AGAIN

Charlie Dattilo Will Return
From Italy With a Bride.

Michael Dattilo, of Vincennes, Ind., was in the city yesterday gathering up proofs of the death of his brother Charlie Dattilo's wife, Aug. 25, 1905. Mr. Dattilo is now in Italy and desires to marry a sister of his former wife. A great deal of red tape is necessary before the marriage can be contracted. His brother can here to secure the affidavits of Dr. Andrew Sargent, who attended the deceased, Undertaker Bailey Waller, Father Welsh, the priest who officiated, and also a certificate under seal of the city, signed by the mayor.

The formalities were all complied with and the papers will be forwarded to Italy through the Italian consul at Louisville. Mr. Dattilo, who is having so much trouble to secure a second wife, is one of several brothers who have been engaged in the fruit business here and at Vincennes, Ind., the last ten years. Several other relatives will come back with Charlie Dattilo and his bride in the spring.

A Great Play.

The advance agent for Dickson and Mastard's Comedy Musical Pantomime, Humpty Dumpty, and the Black Dwarf, was in town Thursday arranging for the appearance of this production at Holland's Opera House. He tells us the managers have added greatly to the comedy of this already funny play, also having all new scenery and wardrobe, while the specialties, six in number, are all new and novel. They carry nearly three tons of special scenery and wardrobe. This will be a show full of bright comedy, musical numbers, Trick's scenery, and electrical effects and a chorus of pretty girls. Judging from the flattering press reports from near by cities, this will be an entertainment to be enjoyed and no doubt will be greeted by a packed house. It will be well to secure your seats early for this production, which will be given at Holland's Opera House next Monday night, Jan. 14.

Notice of Consolidation.

The firm of Hester & Thompson, contractors and builders, comprised of E. H. Hester and Jno. D. Thompson, has this day been dissolved and has consolidated its business with the Hopkinsville Lumber Company, incorporated, which corporation will assume all liabilities and collect all amounts due the late firm of Hester & Thompson. We thank our patrons for past favors and hope to receive a continuation of the same with the new company.

Bad Roads.

The farmers report that the recent rains, sleet, snow and thaws have rendered parts in many of the county roads nearly impassable. The bad roads have prevented many farmers from delivering their tobacco. There is no reason to look for improvement soon.

Costly Interference.

Frank Hicks, of a railroad, has been arrested by the police in the city for interfering with the traffic of the city. Hicks was arrested for interfering with the traffic of the city. Hicks was arrested for interfering with the traffic of the city.
